

Ghost Image

This is a composite image that shows a Ghost image of the Eclipse. It is projected on a cloud layer like a rear projection video screen.

The Solar disc of the Ghost image is jagged, suggesting that it follows the cloud contours. If it were an internal reflection, the image would be sharp. Further, you can see reflection of the inner Corona. This is the only slide the Ghost image appeared